

JASPER COUNTY EMS HERO WALL

A Special Delivery

January 9, 2026

Paramedic Corrie Myers and EMT Cody Runk receive the Indiana Department of Homeland Security Stork Award.

On January 9, 2026, Jasper County EMS responded to a call that would become one of the most memorable moments of the year. During transport, an expectant mother's labor rapidly progressed. Upon arrival at the ambulance bay at IU Arnett Hospital, Paramedic Corrie Myers and EMT Cody Runk delivered a healthy baby girl.

The delivery was successful, and both mother and baby were healthy following the birth. The event reflects the calm teamwork, clinical readiness, and patient-centered care required when a routine transport suddenly becomes an extraordinary moment.

For safely delivering and welcoming this new life into the world, Myers and Runk were recognized with the Indiana Department of Homeland Security Stork Award.
